Kaylee Lauren, the Los Angeles-born singer/songwriter, with over 2 million streams, is a rising star who has established herself with incredible success as an 18 year old artist. The singer writes for the purpose of bringing her fans a space to connect with her music and her artistry, while displaying soul touching emotions with an honest portrayal of what she experiences as a teenager. Since making her music debut at 16 years old, The songstress writes all of her own songs by creating melodies at the piano and working with chords on the guitar, as her songs explore the complexities of heartbreak, self-doubt, and relationship/inner struggles.
